SHEFFIELD — BnBfinder, an online search guide for B&Bs and inns, has named the Chestnut Street Inn in Sheffield a Guest Favorite for 2013.

The Guest Favorite Award is based on guest preferences and independent reviews posted on BnBfinder.com. It is the gold standard and highest distinction awarded by the established travel site.

“Innkeepers Monika and Jeff Sudakov received high praise from their guests for the impeccable service and outstanding food provided at the Chestnut Street Inn,” according to Mary White, founder and CEO of BnBfinder. “This award acknowledges these outstanding guest experiences, and it is well-deserved.”

“Jeff and I are so grateful to all our previous guests who graciously took time to write lovely reviews for us,” said Monika. “It is thanks to them that we have been able to garner this kind of recognition. We are lucky to do what we love for a living.”
